Have you ever been approached by someone who is considering adoption and weren't sure what to say, how to support them, or where to refer them?

Join APO for a virtual educational presentation designed to help professionals respond to adoption conversations with confidence, compassion and accurate information.

Thursday, November 12, 2026
12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

RSVP BY NOVEMBER 5TH

YOU'LL LEARN:

- ✓ How to respond when someone brings up adoption.
- ✓ How to create space for questions and decision-making without pressure.
- ✓ How to provide compassionate, informed support.
- ✓ Where to turn for adoption resources and referrals.

Each attendee will receive a valuable, free resource by mail following the class.

This FREE presentation is for those in the fields of social services, education or healthcare, or for any professional who may encounter someone considering adoption as an option.
